

Myrtleford Golf Club Newsletter

July 2017

After weeks of beautiful autumn golf, winter has arrived

.....a different game altogether from now on.

Some very foggy mornings and recently the wet.

Notes

Not a lot to report from the July meeting, other than a list of upcoming events.

October 4th—Ovens & Murray Past Players Golf Day

October 22nd—Seniors Week Mixed Social Golf

October 30th—Bright v Myrtleford at Bright

November 11th—Ovens Valley Insurance Brokers Ambrose Day at MF

November 18th & 19th Club— Savoy Spring Tournament

November 20th—NEDVGA at Myrtleford

As well as a 21st last Saturday, another in November, Lion's Club Dinner in October and the Alpine Shire Christmas Party in December. It's all still happening at MGC and these social events need lots of catering and bar support.....

There will be no meeting in August, due to a number of committee members being away. No Newsletter either.

May, Marnie, Judy P, Sandra P.
& Carolyn braving the elements. Brrrr....
All in the name of golf!

What's On Next

July 18 Stroke Memory of Past Players

July 19 Snake Ball Stableford

July 22 Stroke

July 22/23 Dederang Annual

Where are they now?

If you've been thinking the fields have been smaller lately—there's a reason.....Angela & Karl O'Shaughnessy were last sighted lunching & swimming in Greece, Piggotts have just returned from Myanmar (visiting relatives, according to Gill) next stop Scandinavia with the Bynons, Robyn & Peter Ternes have reached Airlie Beach via Mt Isa, Lyn Brown is home from Japan, Marnie & Jim Broz celebrated Marnie's significant birthday in the NT and the Rosebys picked up a passenger when passing through Ballina. Judy & Ric Pierce went inland and played at the Donald Golf Club and John Costello had a round at Coral Cove Qld where he parred the par 6!!

Cobber getting Dan to push his cart—bogged???

On the sick list have been George Browne—new knee, and Barb Lowery who is still undergoing cancer treatment. We wish them both speedy recoveries.

You Cannot Be Serious!!!!

A US citizen is vacationing on his own in Ireland. He decides to play a round of golf and is paired with three local gents.

He takes a few practice swings, steps up to the tee and proceeds to hook the ball out of bounds. He shakes his head, reaches into his pocket, and re-tees another ball. He tells his playing partners that he is taking a Mulligan. He pounds one down the centre of the fairway about 220 metres out.

With a big smile, he says to the others, “In the US, we call that a Mulligan, was wondering what you called it here in Ireland?”

After a moment of silence, one of the locals replies, “Hitting three.”

My wife inquired as to why I don't play golf with Dave any more. I asked her, “Would you continue to play with a guy who always gets drunk, loses so many balls that other groups are always playing through, who tells lousy jokes while you're trying to putt, swears, and generally offends everyone around him on the course?”

“Certainly not, dear,” she replied.

“Well, neither would he.”

Updates & Results

Keep up to date with what's on and for the weekly golf results by logging onto the MGC website. I'll be away caravanning for the winter, so the Newsletter will be done by remote and cyber help. Send me news & photos. Golf ball spotted enjoying a seaside break.....
